GARRISON HINTS VAST ARMY PLAN

Letter Suggests Intention to Submit Elaborate Scheme to Congress.

SEES BIG OPPORTUNITY

U. S. Has Never Had a Well-thoughtout Military Policy, Says Secretary.

That Lindley M. Garrison, Secretary War, contemplates submitting to ongress at the December session an laborate plan for the national defense, o far as the army is concerned, is adicated in a letter forwarded by Mr. Garrison to Gen. McComb, president of the War College. The communication of the Secretary of War demonstrates hat it is his purpose to ask Congress or legislation designed to increase the efficiency of the mobile army and the oast defenses along modern lines. A copy of the letter has been placed the hands of the members of the Board of Review, which was created ome months ago by Secretary Garri-on to survey the reports of departnent commanders relative to the needs try Garrison made his statement;

To Be Epochal in Nature.
